

WE GOTTA GET OUT OF THIS PLACE

THE SOUNDTRACK OF THE VIETNAM WAR

Doug Bradley and Craig Werner

Rolling Stone's #1 Best Music Book of 2015

In We Gotta Get Out of This Place, Doug Bradley and Craig Werner explore how and why U.S. troops turned to music as a way of coping with the complexities of the war they had been sent to fight. The personal reflections of the Vietnam veterans—black and white, Latino and Native American, men and women, officers and “grunts”—drive this book’s powerful narrative.

“Intimate and deeply informative, with a scope that encompasses both the war itself and the way that music has helped raise awareness of veterans’ issues long after its end.”—Rolling Stone

“If you want to understand what it felt like, outside of combat itself, to live through and be part of the Vietnam War, read this book. Then, go listen to the music. I did both and I urge you to do the same.”—KARL MARLANTES, author of Matterhorn and What It’s Like to Go to War

“Of the many ways to relate the story of the Vietnam war, few are more vibrant and accessible than the way Doug Bradley and Craig Werner tell it. I devoured this book.”—DAVID MARANISS, author of They Marched into Sunlight: War and Peace, Vietnam and America, October 1967

Doug Bradley, a Vietnam veteran, teaches a course on the war with Craig Werner, professor of Afro-American studies at the University of Wisconsin–Madison and author of Higher Ground: Stevie Wonder, Aretha Franklin, Curtis Mayfield, and the Rise and Fall of American Soul.
